POLICY ON EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

The George Washington University does not unlawfully discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, or sexual orientation. This policy covers all programs, services, policies, and procedures of the University, including admission to educational programs and employment. The University is subject to the District of Columbia Human Rights Law.

Inquiries concerning the application of this policy and federal laws and regulations concerning discrimination in education or employment programs and activities may be addressed to Susan B. Kaplan, Associate Vice President for Human Resources, The George Washington University, Rice Hall, Washington, DC 20052, 202-994-4433, or to the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights of the U.S. Department of Education.

To request disability accommodations, students should contact the Office of Disability Support Services, 202-994-8250 (TDD/voice), and employees should contact the Office of Equal Employment Activities, 202-994-9656 (voice) or -9650 (TDD).

As a founding member of the Association of American Law Schools, The George Washington University Law School subscribes to that Association's bylaws, including the following statements: "A member school shall provide equality of opportunity in legal education for all persons, including faculty and employees with respect to hiring, continuation, promotion and tenure, applicants for admission, enrolled students, and graduates, without discrimination or segregation on the grounds of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, handicap or disability, or sexual orientation. A member school shall seek to have a faculty, staff, and student body which are diverse with respect to race, color, and sex."

SECURITY INFORMATION

GW is committed to assisting all members of the GW community in providing for their own safety and security. The annual security compliance document is available on the UPD website at <http://gwired.gwu.edu/upd>.

If you would like to receive a booklet called "The Pride Brochure" which contains this information, you can stop by the University Police Department at 2033 G Street, NW; Washington, DC 20052 or you can request that a copy be mailed to you by calling 202-994-6948.

The website and booklet contain information regarding campus security and personal safety including topics such as: crime prevention, university police law enforcement authority, crime reporting policies, disciplinary procedures and other matters of importance to security on campus. They also contain information about crime statistics for the three previous calendar years concerning report crimes that occurred on campus; in certain off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by GW; and on public property within, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.

This information is required by law and is provided by The George Washington University Police Department.
