NOMINATION FOR (please select one award):

The Jacob Burns Award for Extraordinary Service to The George Washington University Law School

Description: The George Washington Law Alumni Association established the Jacob Burns Awards for Extraordinary Service to The George Washington University Law School to honor Dr. Jacob Burns, a 1925 graduate of the Law School, noted scholar, leader of enterprise, artist, philanthropist, and humanitarian. As a tribute to Dr. Burns' legacy of personal commitment to legal education and loyalty to the Law School, the award honors that person who has actively assisted the Law School in its academic and civic mission.

The J. William Fulbright Distinguished Public Service Award

Description: The George Washington Law Alumni Association created the J. William Fulbright Distinguished Public Service Award to honor an alumnus/alumna who has performed outstanding public service throughout his/her career. This award is named after Senator J. William Fulbright, a 1934 graduate of the Law School who exemplified the ideals of public service throughout his career as attorney, professor, university president, United States Representative, United States Senator, citizen, and statesman.

BRIEF STATEMENT OF WHY YOU RECOMMEND THIS CANDIDATE FOR THE AWARD:

Please include with your submission any additional information that you wish to be considered in the selection process.

The Jacob Burns Award for Extraordinary Service to The George Washington University Law School and The J. William Fulbright Distinguished Public Service Award will be presented during the GW Law Alumni Weekend Class Dinner & Awards Presentation. Information about the award recipients, attending the dinner, and other Alumni Weekend activities will be posted online as they become available at www.law.gwu.edu.

The "fine print":

- Award recipients must attend the Class Dinner & Awards Presentation in order to receive their awards. Should a recipient be unable to attend, another recipient will be chosen.
 - Individuals selected as recipients but unable to attend the presentation will automatically be reconsidered for the same award for one year following their initial recommendation without any additional information or documentation.
 - Because of the number of exceptional Law School alumni who could be recognized for these awards, The George Washington University Law School, its employees, and affiliated organizations will not comment on the selection process, applicant qualifications, or criteria of these awards. Thank you for refraining from such inquiries.
