3 Ways

To Apply To The George Washington University Law School

THE BINDING EARLY DECISION PROGRAM: APPLICATIONS DUE FEBRUARY 1

The Binding Early Decision Program is designed for applicants who are certain GW Law is their top choice. Admitted applicants will be eligible for need-based grants; applicants who wish to be considered for merit awards should not apply through this program. Applicants must agree to attend GW Law, if admitted.

THE BINDING PRESIDENTIAL MERIT SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM (FULL TUITION): APPLICATIONS DUE FEBRUARY 1

All applicants admitted through the Presidential Merit Scholarship Program will be awarded a full-tuition scholarship. Applicants must agree to attend GW Law, if admitted.

REGULAR ADMISSION PROCESS: APPLICATIONS DUE MARCH 1

Regular admission decisions will be made on a rolling basis between November and May. Students may enroll in the full- or part-time JD program.

CONSIDER OUR PART-TIME PROGRAM

Benefits of GW Law's part-time program include:

- Day or evening classes: Many of our most popular classes meet at 6 p.m.
- Flexibility: Switch easily between full- and part-time status
- Career support: A career counselor, along with evening career programming, dedicated to part-time students
- Robust student life: Enjoy full engagement in the law school community as a part-time student
- Participate in student organizations, be a member of a journal, take advantage of an array of academic and extracurricular opportunities as a part-time student
- Scholarships available

COST OF ATTENDANCE (2023-24)

Tuition and fees: $69,740

Per credit hour: $2,450

GW Law has substantial merit scholarship and need-based grant programs.
