

Non-Degree Studies at GW Law

A limited number of law school graduates may be admitted in a non-degree status to take up to 6 hours of credit.

Entrance requirements for non-degree students are the same as those for degree candidates:

- U.S. law school graduates
 - BA or equivalent degree from a regionally accredited college or university and
 - JD or equivalent degree from a law school that is a member of the Association of American Law Schools (AALS) or is accredited by the American Bar Association (ABA)
 - Non-U.S. Law School Graduates
 - LL.B. in good academic standing
 - English proficiency as reflected on the TOEFL or IELTS exam*
 - Minimum requirements: a score of 100 IBT or 600 PBT on the TOEFL, or
 - Score of 7.0 or higher for the IELTS
- *Applicants with a prior degree earned in the U.S. or elsewhere but in the medium of the English language are exempt from submitting a test score

Non-degree students who subsequently apply for and are granted admission to one of the graduate programs as a degree candidate may have the credits earned at the Law School applied toward degree requirements. However, admission as a degree candidate is not guaranteed. Enrollment in individual courses as a non-degree student will also depend on space availability.

To apply as a non-degree student, the following are required:

1. Completed application for either U.S. Law School graduates or Non-U.S. Law School graduates, available for download on the GW Law web site
2. $80 application fee
3. Statement of interest which includes the desired start semester and preferred classes
4. Transcripts from prior law studies
5. CV or résumé that reflects your work and education history

NOTICE OF NONDISCRIMINATION

The George Washington University does not unlawfully discriminate against any person on any basis prohibited by federal law, the District of Columbia Human Rights Act, or other applicable law, including without limitation, race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression. This policy covers all programs, services, policies, and procedures of the university, including admission to education programs and employment.

Inquiries concerning this policy and federal and local laws and regulations concerning discrimination in education and employment programs and activities may be directed to the university's Office of Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action, Suite 320, 2033 K Street, NW, Washington, DC 20052, (202) 994-9656. Inquiries may also be directed to the U.S. Department of Education Office for Civil Rights, the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, or the applicable state or local agency (for example, the District of Columbia Office of Human Rights).

Questions regarding protections against discrimination on the basis of sex may be directed to the university's Title IX Coordinator, the Vice Provost for Diversity and Inclusion, 813 Rice Hall, 2121 Eye Street, NW, Washington, DC 20052, (202) 994-7440.

Questions regarding the protections against discrimination on the basis of disability may be directed to the university's Disability Services Coordinators. Students may contact the Associate Dean of Students, Administrative Services, Office of the Dean of Students, 401 Rice Hall, 2121 Eye Street, NW, Washington, DC 20052, (202) 994-6710, and other members of the university community may contact the Executive Director of Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action, Suite 320, 2033 K Street, NW, Washington, DC 20052, (202) 994-9633.

To request disability accommodations, students should contact the Office of Disability Support Services at (202) 994-8250 or dss@gwu.edu. Employees and other members of the university community should contact the Office of Equal Employment Opportunity and Affirmative Action at (202) 994-9656 or eeo@gwu.edu.

SECURITY AND FIRE SAFETY INFORMATION

GW is committed to assisting all members of the GW community to collectively achieve a safe campus environment. The annual security and fire safety compliance document is available on the GWPD website at police.gwu.edu.

If you would like to receive a booklet called "The Annual Security and Fire Safety Report" which contains this information, you can stop by the GW Police Department at 801 22nd Street, NW, Rome Hall 101, Washington, DC, 20052 or you can request that a copy be mailed to you by calling (202) 994-6948.

The website and booklet contain information regarding campus security and personal safety including topics such as: crime prevention, fire safety, university police law enforcement authority, crime reporting policies, disciplinary procedures and other matters of importance related to security and safety on campus. They also contain information about crime statistics for the three previous calendar years concerning reported crimes that occurred on campus; in certain off-campus buildings or property owned or controlled by GW; and on public property within, or immediately adjacent to and accessible from the campus.

This information is required by law and is provided by the George Washington University Police Department.
