FIELD PLACEMENT & EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING CREDITS

Any credits taken in Law 6668 (Field Placement, Tillipman) will fulfill the Experiential Learning Credits.

The below co-requisite courses will fulfill Experiential Learning Credits only when taken concurrently with Law 6668 (Field Placement). In order for these courses to count toward the Experiential Learning Credit, the student must be enrolled in the Field Placement program and be seeking credit for their externship

6469 Environmental Lawyering 6671 Government Lawyering
6669 Craft of Judging 6672 Art of International Lawyering
6670 Public Interest Lawyering 6810 Business Lawyering (Cunningham)

Note: the above co-requisite courses will not fulfill the Experiential Learning Credits if the student is permitted to enroll in the course without enrolling in Law 6668 (Field Placement).

Note: the Field Placement tutorial (1 credit) will not fulfill the Experiential Learning Credits. Students enrolling in a tutorial in lieu of the co-requisite course will receive Experiential Learning Credits for the Field Placement, but not the tutorial.

Note: Any co-requisite course used to satisfy the Legal Writing requirement may not also be used to satisfy the Experiential Learning Credit requirement.
