FIRST DAY READING ASSIGNMENT

WELCOME TO LAW SCHOOL!

Dear Students:

I’m excited to work with you as your professor for Civil Procedure during your first semester here at GW Law.

Assignment for First Class

Prior to our first class session together, please read the syllabus for the course and come to class prepared to discuss the Honor Code hypothetical described in the Course Introduction section.

Also, please note that one of the assigned texts, The Buffalo Creek Disaster, by Gerald Stern, should be read in its entirety before the second class session. Although that sounds daunting, the book is quite short and reads like a novel (though it is a story of an actual case), so I think you’ll find it pretty easy to complete the assignment, particularly if you begin now.

See you soon!

FIRST DAY READING ASSIGNMENT

Reading Assignment for Monday, August 23

Please read pp. 1-20 from Tort Law and Alternatives (Marc. A. Franklin et al. eds., 11th ed.). (It is important to use the eleventh edition throughout the semester so that we are all literally on the same page.) Be prepared to discuss Hammontree v. Jenner. The notes that follow the case are intended to help you think through the opinion. Please read all of them, with special attention to notes 1-4 (pp. 6-8).

As you read the material, think not only about the fine points of the case, but also about some of the overarching policy issues that shape the court’s legal analysis. This case is intended to give you an introduction to some of the procedural aspects of a case as well as an overview of some of the larger themes we will be explore in much more detail over the semester.

Hammontree v. Jenner is a demanding case, so read with care. Most of you will find that reading for law school is quite different from the kind of reading you required your undergraduate education. It will take time to learn and develop these skills. Please be patient with yourselves as you embark on the journey of learning to read and think like a lawyer. You will be amazed by how much you absorb and learn in the few first few months of law school – the learning curve is steep.

I look forward to meeting all of you on the 23rd!
