First Day Reading Assignment:
The required text for your torts course is Ward Farnsworth & Mark F. Grady, Torts: Cases and Questions (3d ed. 2019). Before our first class, please read pages xxvii to xxx (section 1), xxxiii to xxxvii (section 3), and xxxvii to xxxix (section 4) of the introduction (the remainder of the introduction is optional), and pages 1 to 3 (to the end of note 1). Please read the Vosberg v. Putney case with particular attention.

6212-2A Civil Procedure

First Day Reading Assignment:
Dear Students:
I'm excited to work with you as your professor for Civil Procedure during your first semester here at GW Law.
Assignment for First Class:
Prior to our first class session together, please read the syllabus for the course and come to class prepared to discuss the Honor Code hypothetical described in the Course Introduction section. Also, please note that one of the assigned texts, The Buffalo Creek Disaster, by Gerald Stern, should be read in its entirety before the second class session. Although that sounds daunting, the book is quite short and reads like a novel (though it is a story of an actual case), so I think you'll find it pretty easy to complete the assignment, particularly if you begin now.

See you soon!

The First Assignment is a short problem and a series of questions which can be found on the course site. I anticipate that it will take the first class (questions 1-10) and half the second class to complete. It will be followed by my lecture, giving an overview of how a civil suit in federal court proceeds from start to finish. For that class, read the chapter on Litigation from “Fundamentals of American Law” that is posted. Also read the posted Oregon Law Review article that I wrote. Both of these are for background purposes, and together with the lecture, they should help you get a better overview of the course.
