Edward J. Ungvarsky of Ungvarsky Law, PLLC and Jennifer Wicks of the Law Offices of Jennifer Wicks, have an immediate opening for a law clerk/law graduate to work as a team member on a federal capital trial case in the District of Maryland. The employment period is dependent upon the student’s/graduate’s availability, whether through the remainder of the spring semester or into the summer and fall. Mr. Ungvarsky has offices in Alexandria, Virginia and the District of Columbia. Ms. Wicks has offices in Takoma Park, Maryland and the District of Columbia. Court proceedings are in Baltimore, Maryland. The law clerk will work independently from home or, when needed, from an attorney’s offices.

This is a paid position at a rate of $25 per hour, with payment received, as an independent contractor, based upon submission of vouchers to the federal court.

The law clerk's duties will include conducting complex legal research, drafting motions, briefs and pleadings, factual investigation and development, working with scientific experts and other consultants, consulting with lawyers in on-going criminal litigation, participating in case strategy meetings, observing capital proceedings in court, and otherwise being fully immersed in a sophisticated capital defense litigation atmosphere. Mr. Ungvarsky and Ms. Wicks will provide professional supervision.
Application Process

Applicants are requested to send a detailed cover letter, resume, and the names and contact information of at least two references – one academic and one professional - jointly to Edward J. Ungvarsky at ed@ungvarskylaw.com and Jenifer Wicks at jenifer@jwickslaw.com. Minimum qualifications include prior indigent criminal defense and/or immigration law experience. Preferred qualifications include 2L or more experienced, capital defense experience and Spanish-language fluency. Applications are considered on a rolling basis.