SUMMER PROGRAMS IN EUROPE

In light of the vaccination rollout likely continuing through the summer, the George Washington University has announced the suspension of all summer study abroad programs and other non-essential student travel for Summer 2021, including the Law School's summer law programs in:

- Augsburg, Germany (European Business and Economic Law)
- Munich, Germany (Intellectual Property Law)
- Oxford, United Kingdom (International Human Rights Law)

We hope to be able to offer these opportunities again in the future when it is safe to do so.

SELECTED COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

6461-30 Selected Topics in Environmental Law: Global and Comparative Environmental Law and Policy L. Harmon-Walker/A. Vithanage

Comparative environmental law provides useful models for legislators and policymakers. This survey of environmental legal systems across the world will compare resource conservation, biodiversity, pollution control, environmental justice, sustainable development, indigenous rights, and collective transboundary challenges such as air pollution, watercourses, and climate change. (Written assignments or research paper, with presentation)

6513-30 Selected Topics in Government Procurement Law: *Introduction to Federal Appropriations Law J. Matta

This course provides experiential learning for students planning a career in the federal government advising and leading legislative, executive, or judicial branch programs. An understanding of federal appropriations law is a fundamental skill for all federal attorneys. The identification of an available appropriation, its permissible uses, and any relevant restrictions or prohibitions, is a threshold issue prior to taking any federal action, including executing a federal contract. Federal attorneys with a working knowledge of appropriations law bring critical expertise to bear in advising internal agency clients on how to maximize scarce resources. (Writing assignments and class participation) (Experiential)

*Priority registration to M.S.L. students (and LL.M.s); open to J.D. students with permission of the Program Director.
